THE COUNTY FAIR A GREAT EVENT.

Beautiful Women, Fine Horses and no Whisky--
Hardinsburg Shows Her Colors in Entertaining the Visitors.

Summed up in one word the Breckenridge County Fair, held at Hardinsburg from Tuesday until Thursday, was a success. Wednesday, designated by the Fair Company as "Louisville Day," was the greatest day, the crowd in attendance then was variously estimated from eight to twelve thousand.

The fair was made up of pretty women, fine horses and no whisky. It was grand. The amphitheater, in its snow white coat which towered above the race track, formed a beautiful picture with the green pastures in the background.

The amusement features were good and afforded much pleasure for everybody, but the races won the throng and all eyes were turned from other attractions when the blue ribbon horses appeared upon the scene. The exhibition of cattle, sheep and hogs was past the average, and the poultry raisers too had some perfect specimens there. The only shortage in the displays was in the fruits and vegetables, both being very scarce this year. The Floral Hall, under the direction of the ladies, was most attractive, and many pieces of handsome hand-made work were shown.

The Commercial Brass Band, of Cannellton, Ind., was there and furnished music each day.

The association easily took in enough to pay all premiums and expenses and had a cash surplus left over. So the fair will be a permanent event and everybody can go back next year.

The following premiums were awarded:
